

Graco Launches Breakthrough LineLazer® ES 1000 Electric Airless Striper

February 15, 2017

First professional exhaust-free, quiet striping solution in U.S. for indoor and outdoor jobs

MINNEAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 15, 2017-- Graco Inc. (NYSE:GGG), a leading manufacturer of fluid handling equipment, is pleased to introduce the LineLazer® ES 1000, the first professional battery-powered airless line striper in the U.S. that delivers power and performance without engine exhaust or noise. The LineLazer ES 1000 is a true technology breakthrough for striping contractors who want to expand their business to indoor, limited noise or populated-area applications with a quiet, clean alternative power source without sacrificing performance. Ideal for factory and warehouse applications, the LineLazer ES 1000 replaces high-cost manual taping and paint marking methods.

Mike Vangstad, Graco Global Product Marketing Manager for Pavement Maintenance Products, said, "The LineLazer ES 1000 will allow striping contractors to expand their business into indoor applications, increasing their revenue while offering the power and performance needed to expand their outdoor striping business where noise restrictions and exhaust are an issue. This is truly a game-changing product from Graco and a great fleet addition for line striping contractors worldwide."

The LineLazer ES 1000 features high-output electric battery power that eliminates gas costs, exhaust, noise and vibration while delivering crisp lines. The ES 1000 can deliver up to 60 gallons of material on a single charge with two batteries. The on-board charger maximizes performance and enables plug-in charging without battery removal. The LineLazer ES 1000 also features a new innovative spray gun adjustment design with "G" Clamp holder system and the proven performance of the 495 PC Pro Pump, Motor and Drive system with Fast Flush™, SmartControl™ and ProConnect™ technology for quick and easy use and years of uninterrupted performance. Finally, it features the exclusive LineLazer Cart for all-day striping comfort.
